313	PROSECCO, ISOTTA MANZONI "CUVÉE GIULIANA" (VENETO) NV	28
311	CONTRATTO "MILLESIMATO" PAS DOSÉ (PIEMONTE) 2012	79

Don't overlook the 2012 vintage "Millesimato" from Contratto (Bin 311) just because you might not be celebrating a special occasion. Sparkling wines are extremely food-friendly and food-flexible. This particular wine is very dry (pas dosé means "without dosage", so there's no added sugar) and made by La Spinetta's, super talented, Giorgio Rivetti.

French Chardonnays, like the 2013 “Arbois” from Rijckaert (Bin 401), are typically more refined and food-friendly than their New World cousins. As opposed to the buttery creaminess and tropical fruit of a California Chardonnay, you can expect more tree fruit, think apples and pears, coupled with minerality and a refreshing acidity.

The 2014 Cannonau di Sardegna from Neale (Bin 515) is full of secondary herbaceous aromas like oregano and basil with a soft peppery finish. This Cannonau, which is the same grape as Grenache from France, is truly Sardinia in a glass and is drinking beautifully right now.

2013 was a difficult vintage in Rioja. Wines can be judged by the raw materials- grapes, vines, terroir, weather, and wines can be judged by the vintner and their talents. Taste the "Reserva" 2013 from Cune (Bin 533) to see what difference a brilliant winemaker can make to a less desirable vintage.

Niellucciu, a distinct island variant of the native Italian varietal, Sangiovese, may be a bit of a challenge to wrap your tongue around, but the wines blended from this lusty, robust variety require little effort to enjoy!
